CONNEAUT LAKE PARK OFFERS EXTRA INCENTIVE FOR GUESTS WISHING TO STAY OVERNIGHT

Conneaut Lake, Pennsylvania, June 22, 2006 – Historic Conneaut Lake Park is once again providing families with an extraordinary opportunity. The family-oriented park and resort has just recently given all guests staying in the Hotel Conneaut or Camperland, both located at the park, the opportunity to save two dollars on each Ride-A-Rama ride/slide pass. With the park's free admission policy, along with its unmatched affordable prices, this coupon gives families the ability to transform another mundane summer weekend into an excitement filled, family-oriented getaway.

Both accommodations offer guests with something special. The Hotel Conneaut is located on the Conneaut Lake Park grounds, offering fine dining, and lakefront views. Contrary to the captivating environment provided by Hotel Conneaut, Camperland offers guests something different. Camperland is available for tents and RVs alike, offering all
