CELEBRATE THE 4TH AT CONNEAUT LAKE PARK WHERE FESTIVITIES ARE PLANNED.

CONNEAUT LAKE, Pennsylvania, June 23, 2006 – Celebrate America at Conneaut Lake Park this 4th of July weekend with a parade, a concert, and fireworks! In addition, two famed Conneaut Lake Park rides are set for a grand reopening.

At 1:00 on Saturday July 1st, a traditional patriotic parade will be held on the park midway, led by color guards representing the U.S. Armed Forces – the Marines, Army, Navy, and Air Force. Following are our local Queens and princesses, including the newly crowned Ms. Conneaut Lake Park – Susan Anton and Mrs. Pennsylvania International. Other units include Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, and clowns, Uncle Sam on stilts, local fire departments, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, the Spinetts, Following the parade, a speakers will discuss Conneaut Lake Park history on the festival lawn.

Sunday, July 2nd, the fun continues with an evening concert on the Festival Lawn.

The Allegheny Brass Band and its 35 members will begin playing at 7:30pm and feature patriotic favorites, concluding with Stars and Stripes Forever. The night will end with a BANG as fireworks light up the July summer sky. Who can resist an afternoon of amusement rides, water slides, cotton candy, a stroll on the boardwalk, a concert, and fireworks, all in Celebration of America.

On Saturday, the Bessemer Railway System (the park's train ride), will tentatively have a much-anticipated grand reopening celebration. The Bessemer Railway System has been inoperable for the last couple years due to maintenance costs. Fortunately, it will open this season due to the efforts of many individuals who have been raising funds. One way funds have been raised is through a Buy-A-Brick campaign where Conneaut Lake Park fans and supporters can purchase bricks that can be engraved and memorialized. Don't worry though, bricks can still be purchased for the Bessemer Railway System. Simply visit conneautlakepark.com or call (814) 382-5115.

This weekend, Rides and Slides open at noon. Historic Hotel Conneaut and Camperland are still taking reservations although vacancies are going quickly. They Kaylee Belle Paddlewheel Boat will offer lake cruises at select times during the weekend. Visit Conneaut Lake Park on the web at www.conneautlakepark.com or call (814) 439-0164 for more information about the Kaylee Belle or (814) 382-5115 for Park information, and reservations. Don't miss out on all the fun at Conneaut Lake Park, a family tradition since 1892.
