CONNEAUT LAKE PARK COMMUNITY BOGO DAY FOR MIDWESTERN PENNSYLVANIA

Conneaut Lake, Pennsylvania, August 3, 2006 – Conneaut Lake Park is inviting the people of all of Midwestern Pennsylvania to Conneaut Lake Park for a Community Day. Residents of this area will receive an incredible Buy One Get One FREE deal on Ride-A-Rama Ride and Slide Passes on August 11, 2006.

Conneaut Lake Park is a classic amusement park and resort that also retains the charm and flavor of Eastern Ohio parks that are long gone. With its quaint atmosphere, Conneaut Lake Park is still operated in the same format as former parks like Cascade Park, Idora Park, West View Park, and White Swan. Classic favorites like the Tumble Bug, Miniature Train, and Blue Streak wooden roller coaster are all running this summer.

Conneaut Lake Park is still a FREE admission park the way all parks used to be. Those that don't wish to ride everything can still purchase individual ride tickets. Grandma and Grandpa can choose to ride the miniature train and carousel without creating a dent in the pocketbook. A Conneaut Lake Park vacation is a "One Tank Trip"

During this weekend, Conneaut Lake Park will be hosting "Connie Otter's Kids Extravaganza. Also, a spectacular fireworks display will be held on Saturday at 10:00 PM. Residents of all of Midwestern Pennsylvania are invited to your Community Day at Conneaut Lake Park!
